Walteria PTA Reports
Busy April Schedule

The April meeting of the Walteria PTA was held at the school, Thursday evening. Mrs. Robert Ziske presiding. Pledge of Allegiance was led by the Girl Scouts and an inspirational message was read by M. C. Nestlerode, to open the meeting. Mrs. R. T. McNulty, president-elect, gave a report on the TEAC meeting which she and Mrs. B. J. Michels attended. Mrs. McNulty outlined the changes to be made in the plans for the new Walteria School now under construction.

Mrs. Ziske announced the Torrance PTA Council meeting. The following delegates were elected to attend the first District PTA Convention in Pasadena today: Mmes. R. T. McNulty, B. T. Laughlin, Carl Cramer, William Collison and Robert Ziske.

Mrs. A. C. Turner, president of Torrance Council PTA, was introduced.

Mrs. McNulty, program chairman introduced Ernest W. Donlou, D.D.S. and Mrs. Donlou of Redondo Beach. Dr. Donlou presented the program, which featured a short talk in which the purpose and care of the teeth was explained in a most interesting manner. Dr. Donlou then presented a movie, which had as the theme, the importance of caring for children's teeth, starting when they are very young. A record featuring Bob Hope in a talk on the care of the teeth was played and the PTA was presented with an album of records for future use.

The association voted to sponsor the Brownies for a not the year. Nelson Harvey spoke on the great progress and success of the Cub Scouts in Walteria and stressed the need of more committee members. The Cub Scouts are also sponsored by the Walteria PTA. Mrs. Slonecker announced a Consumer Education class at the Recreation Hall in Walteria, starting April 25, with Mrs. Alpha Stum as teacher. Mrs. Laughlin announced the cooking school at Torrance Furniture Store. The last of April. No definite date has been set. No definite date has been set. Mrs. Laughlin announced that Mrs. Stinson had won the room prize. Refreshments were served by the room mothers.

OES Matrons
Are Guests

Mrs. Jeannette Clark opened her Beech avenue home Friday evening for a meeting of the OES Past Matrons Club. Assisting as cohostess was Mrs. Edna Babcock.

A lovely arrangement of garden roses centered the dining table where refreshments were served to the 15 club members attending.

A man can be judged by the kind of woman who married him.

"Happy birthday,
dear Mother, come and see us
real soo-oo-oon"

The family seems so much closer when you're chatting over Long Distance lines. And only Long Distance can carry your voice—with all the warmth and personality it expresses—across the miles and into the homes and hearts of those you love.

You'll find rates are so low that you may call Long Distance often. And if you plan your call, you can say as much in three minutes as in a letter—and get an immediate answer to your questions.

There's no faster way to keep in touch with folks away from home. Today many calls are speeding through in only 30 seconds...when you give Operator the number you want—not just the name and address.

Rebekahs in Final Secret
Work Contest

Trió Rebekahs met Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Anna May Isbell, Noble Grand, presided.

Highlight of the evening was the final secret work contest among the various lodges of the District. Contestants were: Ethel Hopkins of Ocean Queen Rebekah Lodge, San Pedro; Jessie Greene, Compton; Rebekah Lodge; Vtha Waddell, Paloma Rebekah Lodge, Los Angeles; Amy Savage, Trió Rebekah Lodge, Lomita; Vtha Waddell won first prize for the most perfect work.

Judges were: Emma Ludwig, San Pedro; Flora Moraine, Del Mar; Rebekah Lodge, Long Beach; Alvira Knobb, Paloma Rebekah Lodge, Los Angeles; and Catherine Sproull, Angeles Mesa Rebekah Lodge, Los Angeles.

At the conclusion of the business session, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Catherine Vash, chairman of the evening, and her assistants.

Birthday Is Observed by Linda Clang

The fifth birthday of Linda Marie Clang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor M. Clang of 2364 W. 255th street, Friday meant a big birthday cake with her special friends invited to help her celebrate the event.

Gathering at the Clang home the little folk were invited to join in a group of games and then Linda was seated to open her many lovely gifts. Later the decorated cake with pink icing was cut and served with ice cream to Elythe Carpenter, Eileen Greathouse, Catherine Hahousch, Cheryl Kirkpatrick, Lois Jean Shurgot, Kenny Holmer, Jimmy Clark, Karen Hentz of Lomita; Jerry Coburn of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeGregory and son, Johnnie of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ella Hall who recently arrived here from Nebraska.

A young deacon had to read one of his own sermons to his bishop. The bishop heard it out in stony silence. Then, trembling, the curate said, "Will that do?" "Do what?" the bishop said. —Daily Express.
